Testimonials

“Adjusting is a very important part of teaching. If we don't know how to do it properly not only students but the teacher will have injuries. I learnt a lot of great techniques from this workshop. I highly recommend this to everybody.

Tomoko Gregory, Cairns Yoga Teacher

“Attending a workshop with Nicky is always such a joy. Her wealth of knowledge combined with her generosity in sharing as a teacher is amazing. I left this workshop inspired and filled with new ideas both for teaching and for my own practice. I am already looking forward to the next workshop.

Susan Kelly, Mission Beach Yoga Teacher

“If you're looking for some extra tools to add to your yoga teaching toolbox, spending a day with Nicky Knoff in her Assisting/Adjusting workshop is definitely worth doing. This workshop provided me with the added confidence to guide students in their practice and where required providing physical adjustments to support them.
